Russell Offered Two Fights in Boston

"Unit" Russell, the hard hitting welterweight, of Phihadelphia, has been offered two battles at the Armory A. A., of Boston, in the near future. Mish Murray, matchmaker of the club, last night notified Billy McCarney, manager of "Unit," that he would put Russell on with both Tommy

The field of horses that will take part in this year's Carter Handicap is by long odds the fastest lot that have ever been nominated for it. The absence of Roseben robs it of much of its interest because the great sprinter's presence in it in other years always insured a fast race, which the racegoing public is always in favor of.

The Carter Handicap was originally a $1,000 affair, but it has steadily grown in favor and value until at the present day its guaranteed cash value is $10,000.
